The cars for the Montgomery street rail-

Strawberries are plentiful in the Montgomery market at thirty-five cents per quart. A man in Uniontown, Ky., is nursing a four-year-old century plant, and means to see it bloom.

The Receivers of the Alabama and Chat-tanooga Railroad have determined to run only a tri-weekly train. They are two months behind in paying the employees.

Mesers. Rogers & Co., of Palatka, Florida shipped to two houses, one at Baltimore and the other at New York, from May to December last, 90,000 pounds of vanills. It is worth, when dried, five cents per pound. It is packed in bales for shipment and is used to flavor smoking tobacco.

Galveston News: "The prairies are now daiveston News: "The prairies are now a scene of beauty, surpassing even the imagination which drew the picture of the valley of Abyssinia. Millions of flowers deck their green surfaces like beautifully variegated carpets. If there is anything more lovely than a Texas prairie in the month of Apili we should like to know it."

plows stood idle on the farms of our fellow-citizen, W. D. Mars, of Calhoun Mills, S. C., on the day of the hanging. All had gone, bag and baggage. There was not even, as of old, the resource of laughing girls whose aires had marched to Rome. All had gone, young and old, male and female."

According to an estimate made by the Paducah Kentuckian, the coal fields of Ken-tucky are not so extensive as in five other States, their extent being about 14,000 square miles. Yet, owing to their accessibility and the f cility and cheapness with which they can be worked, they are estimated to be only second in value to Pennsylvania. It is calculated that there is enough coal in Ken-tucky to last for one thousand centuries.

Business men of Jacksonville, Fla., are on Business men of Jacksonville, Fla., are on the qui vive, earnestly looking out for the Green Line tourists' train, which is expected that way via Chattahoochee, loaded down with practical men, who behold in Florida a base for future operations. Roceiver J. C. Greeley and other railroad officials, are now endeavoring to run the Green Line freight through from St. Louis via Chattahoochee direct, saving the long delay by having the Western freight by Atlanta and other routes through Middle Georgia.

The New Orleans Picayune says: Yester-The New Orleans Picayune says: Yesterday we made inquiry of the intelligent Deputy Sheriff, Colonel Dick, what aumber of tenants paid rent to the sheriff. His answer was: "Over six hundred, and daily increasing." And this number has been acquired in one year. At a like ratio, in four years there is great danger that the sheriff will be the sole, as he is now the principal, landlord of the city. In the country it is even worse. More than half of all the properties in the parishes are under selzure for taxes. Not one-third of them would sell for enough to pay taxes and mortgages.

The Brownsville (Tenn) States talls this

The Brownsville, (Tenn.) States tells this story: A singular termination to a courtahip occurred at Stanton, in this county. A gentleman from North Carolina who, many years ago, knew a lady now living in Stanton, wrote to the lady, after an absence of fifteen years, asking her to marry him, and to keep it a profound secret. She complied with his request, and was making the second to keep it a profound secret. One complicate with his request, and was making the usual preparations when he came from the Old North State the other day to carry out his part of the transaction, and on arriving at the cast of the transaction, and on arriving at the cast of the transaction. Stanton, he met a gentleman who congratu-lated him upon his approaching happiness. The aged North Carolinian became wrathy, went to the hotel and wrote his affianced a note, withdrawing from his engagement. The trouble with the old gent was that she had not kept it a secret as he requested.

The Supreme Court of Louisians, on the 6th instant, decided that the bonds issued to the New Orleans, Mobile and Chattanooga Railroad Company, amounting to $2,500,000, are null and void. These bonds were issued in conformity to an act of the Louisians Legislature, which provided that is lied of an appropriation of bonds, on second mortiges, for every ten miles, at the rate of $2,500,000 of bonds, the consideration of $2,500,000 of bonds, the consideration of which was the giving to the State a certificate of $3,500,000 of bonds, the consideration of which was the giving to the State a certificate of $3,500,000 of bonds, the consideration of which was the giving to the State a certificate of $3,500,000 of bonds, the consideration of which was the giving to the State a certificate of $4 shirtings 71.3 per yard, 7.3 shirtings $1.3 per yard, 7.5 shi

Artificial Butter.

The manufacture of butter from animal fats and milk has been greatly impeded by patents. The American patentee, Bradley, found a Frenchman in the field, who claimed the right to make oleo-margarin under a conflict this branch of manufacture, both in California and in the Eastern States, has de-

The Hudson County Dairy Company, loca ted at Hoboken, and working under the Brad ley patent, is, however, in successful operation, turning out about 2,500 pounds of prime butter a day. Under the Mege patent three factories are in operation at Boston, New Haven and Albany. These factories have produced not less than two hundred tons of marketable butter.

The process in one is essentially the pro cess in all. The pure animal fat is brought in every morning from the slaughter houses. It is first washed, then chopped up, after which it is boiled and all the scrap and tissue are taken out. After cooling it is churned with pure fresh milk. Then it is washed out, worked over, salted, colored, packed and shipped. The result is a butter which in color, consistence, texture and taste dangerously resembles the old-fushioned article The majority of batter eaters would never discover the difference.

The American Grocer c'ains that it is as legitimate and praisew rithy an industry as any other, and the product is a perfectly healthy and agreeable article of food for which the demand will create a market. It which the demand will create a market of the second formula of the secon compares favorably with three-four he of the butter that comes to the New York market, says the same authority. It purpose. The reasons that Mr. Laurens gave for this singular desire was, that his body was never becomes rancid, but grows firmer with age, and is, therefore, peculiarly suited for shipment to Southern latitudes. There is little inducement, says the Grecer, to mix it with country butter, for its grade will probably be superior to all the ferior qualities of the home-made article.

As soon as the conflict between the claimants under the rival patents is terminated. we may expect to see a butter-mill in every city where beeves are killed. In that case we will be likely to patronize oleo-margarin whether we know it or not. Even now the umers of "Orange county" may be entertaining "the artificial" unawares.

Rainey was a South Carolina slave, is 45 ears old; a light mulatto, a barber by trade, well off, and has a large family.

It is that of Heary Laurens, which took place the conflict between the holders of similar at his plantation, December 11, 1792. The case is the more interesting because of the prominent and creditable part that this eminent citizen of Charleston acted in our early patent granted to another Frenchman by the national life. He succeeded John Hancock name of Mege. In the course of the legal as President of Congress; was appointed Minister to Holland; was captured on the way to his mission: and after his release he was associated with Jay, Franklin and Adams in the negotiation of the treaty of brass band has been organized, and the plainpeace. amount of certain described bank bills, issued by the defendant, payable to bearer, a part of which were issued before the war, and the other part thereof were issued in May and Juce, 1863. The defendant filed two pleas, alleging that the bills issued in 1863 were issued and used as Confederate currency, and in aid of the Confederate Government in the in sid of the Confederate Government in the war between it and the United States, and were illegally issued. That the bills issued in 1863 were intended, and universally understood to be payable in Confederate treasury notes, and should be scaled under the Ordinance of 1865. The praintiffs demurred to the defendant's pleas. The Court sustained the demurrer, and the defendant excepted. The questions involved in the defendant's pleas were decided by this Court in the case of the Manufacturers' Bank of Macon vs. Lamar; 46th Ga. Rep., 568. But we have been requested by the plaintiff in error to review that decision in view of the provisions of the Act of 1863. of the Court in that case, we would remark that the Act incorporating the defendant and authorizing it to issue bills, was passed on the 23d day of February, 1850. When the defendant accepted that charter, it was bound by the terms of it, and all bills issued by it were issued by the authority of that charter, the same being a contract between it and the State. The defendant had no authority to issue bills in 1863, under any other charter but that, and there can be no pretense that in the exercise of the franchise and privileges granted to it by that charter in issuing bills in 1863 that it was aiding the rebellion, and when it assumes by its plea that it has done so, it repudiates the validity of a public law of the State, to which it owes its existence. The Act of the 39th November, 1863, did nothing more than relieve the defendant from the penalty incurred by refusing to redeem its bills in gold and allers rupp certain terms and condulans states. Nearly every family has a loom with which they make cloth "for every day and Sunday soe."

Mesars. Kulleve & Son have, near Newton, a woolen factory. The retory has six looms, is moved by water, and can make daily 180 yards of cloth, thich is smooth, and is equal to suy manufactured elsewhere.

This fectory has been in successful operation more than two years, and has preved a good investment to the owners. Why is it that we have so few factories in our "importal isnd of the South?" Our factories in our "importal isnd of the South?" Our factories for manufacturing are equal to those of any other country, and yet many of our people purchase Yankee goods. Cavitalists turchase our cotton, carry it to New England or elsewhere manufacture it, after which it is returned and sold to the planter.

APPLETON'S AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA.

New Revised Edition. Entirely rewritten by the ablest writers on ever subject. Printed from new type, and illustrated with Several Thousand E: gravings and Mape. THE work originally published under the title of THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOP EDIA was completed in 1865, since which time the wide circulation which it has stained in all parts of the United States, and the signal developments which have taken place in every branch of science, iterature and arr, nave induced the editors and publishers to submit it to an exact and thorough revision, and to issue a new edition untitled THE AMERICAN CYCLOP EDIA.

Within the last ten years the progress of discovery n every department of knowledge has made a new work of reference an imporative want. The movement of political affairs has kept pace with the discoveries of science, and their finitial apwith the discoveries of science, and their finitial ap-plication to the industrial and useful arts and the convenience and refinement of social iffe. Grpat wars and consequent revolutions have occurred, involving national changes of peculiar moment. The civil war of our own country, which was at its ceight when the last volume of the old work appeared has happily been ended, and a new course of commercial and in-dustrial activity has been commenced. Large accessions to our geographical knowledge have been made by the indefau, undle exporers of

The great political revolutions of the last decade with the natural result of the laps, of time, have brought into public view a multitude of new men, whose names are in every one's mouth, and of where lives every one is curious to know the particulars. Great battles have been fought and important sleger mantained, of which the details are as yet preserved only in the newspapers or in the transcient publications of the day, out which ought now to take their pales in permanent and authentic history.

In preparing the present edition for the press, it has acc. rdingly been the aim of the editors to bring down the information to the latest possible dates, and to furnish an accurate account of the most recent discoveries in science, of every fresh production in literature, and of the newset invention in the practical events.
